

Irene Serra vocals Richard Sadler double bass Naadia Sherif piano Chris Nickolls drums

“...ISQ is perfecting its craft, becoming one of the most recognisable bands on the scene...” ALL ABOUT JAZZ

After two critically-acclaimed brave and original albums, ISQ are currently embarking on their third release ‘Requiem For the Faithful’. Their recent singles from the new album - ‘Paper Doll’ and ‘Ode To Myself’ - show a consolidation and maturing of their own inimitable style - the use of space and dynamics along with Serra’s evocative lyrics that weave stories of a rare intensity. Each song creates a visual storyline - a movie-ette in the listeners head, that connect to an audience well beyond just the jazz one.

Out on the 27th September 2019, the album release coincides with a UK tour of jazz clubs and festivals and the band are looking to expand their horizons towards the rest of Europe in 2020. It is in a live setting that ISQ really show their jazz roots, expanding the framework of the songs and relishing in the musical spontaneity and interplay. Hear them when you get the chance...

For further information see www.isqmusic.com email info@isqmusic.com phone 07762 644297

“...original songs that defy categorisation...” JAZZWISE

www.facebook.com/isqmusic
www.twitter.com/isqmusic
www.soundcloud.com/isqmusic
www.bit.ly/isqspotify
www.youtube.com/isqmusic
www.instagram.com/isqmusic